

Privacy Policy for Sendblue Caller

Effective Date: 06/12/2024

At Sendblue Caller, we respect your privacy. This privacy policy explains how we handle your information when you use our Chrome extension.

1. Data Collection

Currently, Sendblue Caller does not collect any personal information, browsing history, or usage data. The extension functions solely to add a phone icon to phone numbers on web pages, and any interaction with the extension does not involve the collection of personal information.

2. Future Data Collection

In the future, we may introduce a feature that allows users to save phone numbers for use in an agenda or similar functionality. If this feature is added, the data collected will be limited to phone numbers only, and you will be notified of any changes to this privacy policy at that time. At no point will we collect sensitive personal data or share your information with third parties without your consent.

3. Data Usage

If we introduce features that collect data in the future, all data will be used solely for the purpose of improving your experience with the extension. We will not share, sell, or distribute your information to third parties without your explicit consent.

4. Security

We are committed to ensuring the security of your information. While no method of data transmission over the Internet is completely secure, we will implement reasonable security measures to protect your data.

5. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this privacy policy from time to time. If we make significant changes, we will notify you via the Chrome Web Store or within the extension itself. You should periodically review this page to stay informed about how we are protecting your information.

6. Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about this privacy policy or your data, please contact us at <https://www.sendblue.com/> or via email at joao@sendblue.com or rob@tryraz.com.
